OCEANA HIGH SCHOOL

OCEANA, WEST VIRGINIA

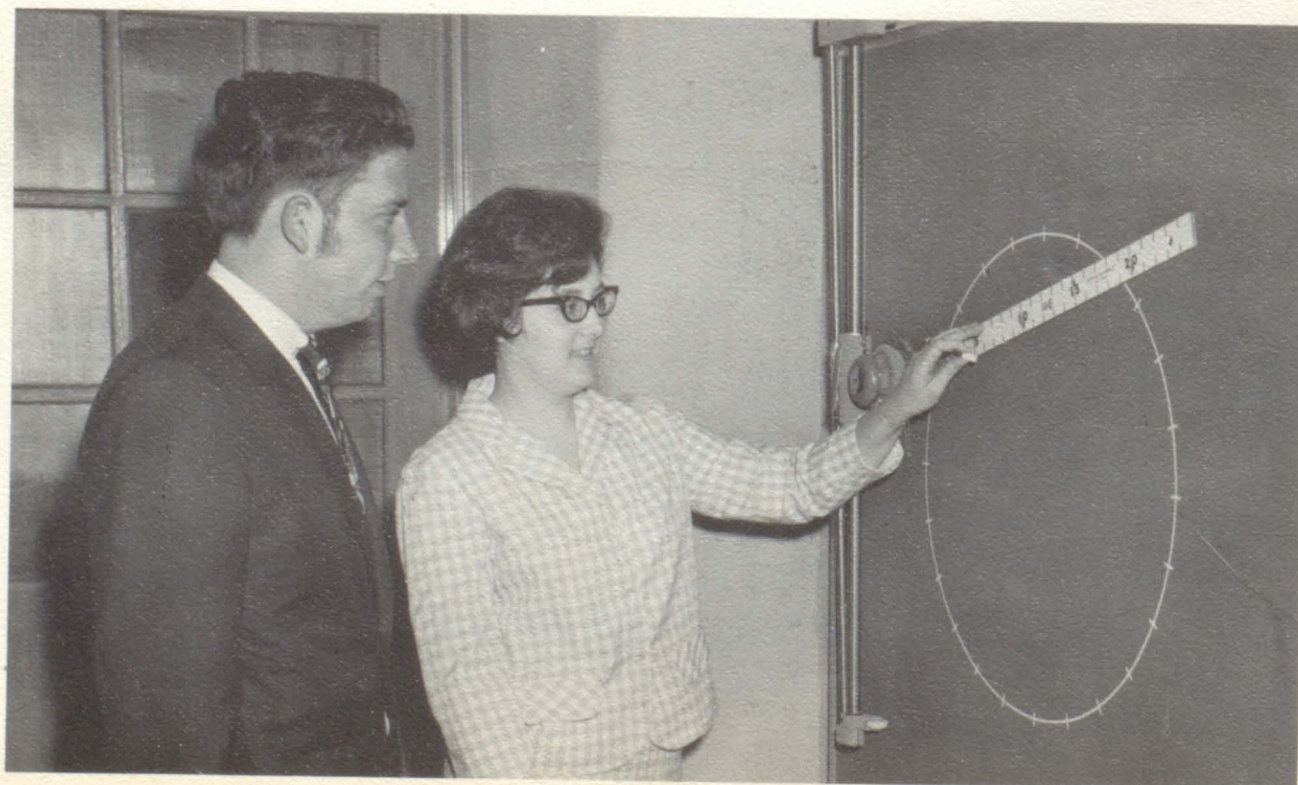

RETURNING FROM trade school classes, Harry Cook, Howard Pack, and Tom Lyons do some digging in the library. They are among the many students who combine vocational training with academic studies.

Learning, Fun, and Friendship

LEARNING IS pleasant in the new math laboratory. Mrs. Lillian Cook helps Neil Browning with a problem in Modern Analysis. New equipment simplifies the solution of difficult problems.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO? Donnie Johnson, as principal on Senior-Teacher Day, finds himself surrounded by a bevy of pretty office assistants and pretty teachers who ask him to declare an immediate holiday. Making the plea are charmers Kaye Blackburn, Elaine Brickles, Gail Browning, Ann Lusk, and Donna Thacker.

Make a Memorable Year

Foreword

As we look back along the road to yesterday, we will remember the happy combination of learning, fun, and friendship which we find at Oceana High.

Each has its place. We have the opportunity to get the best possible high school education--to pursue our interests in many fields and to develop our talents.

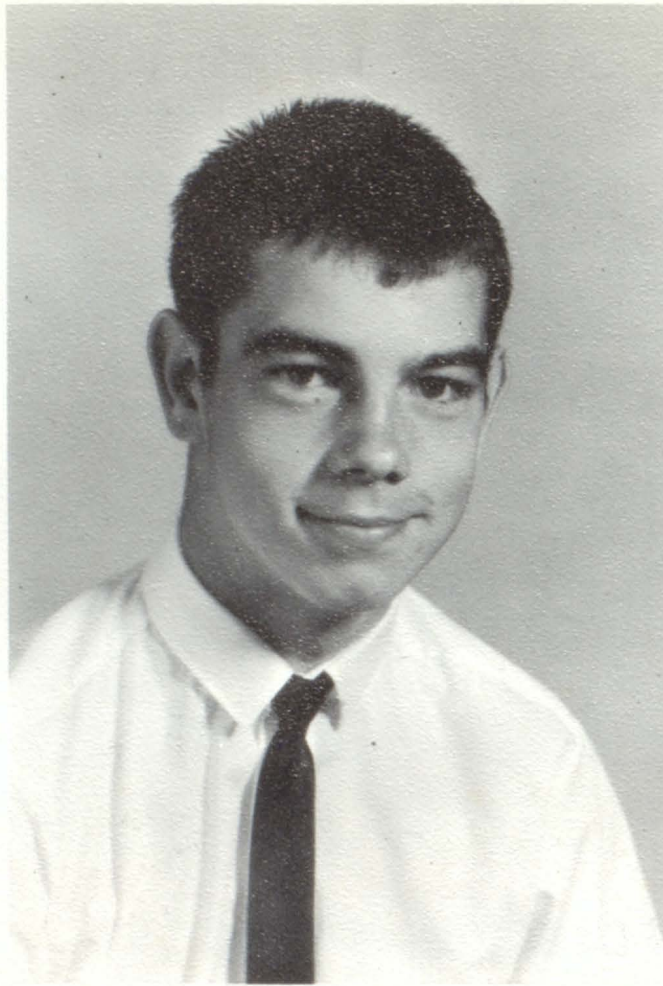

We have our gay moments for most of life is young and gay to youth, and we seize every opportunity for fun and laughter.

We make new friends and hold fast to old ones. Our schoolday friendships are treasured and will never be forgotten.

The Oceanian staff presents its view of Learning, Fun, and Friendship at Oceana High during the school year of 1966-67.

HONOR SOCIETY members back the football team by marching in the Homecoming Parade. Sandy Philyaw and Ann Lusk carry the banner while Janet Walls and Donnie Johnson carry placards in the march.

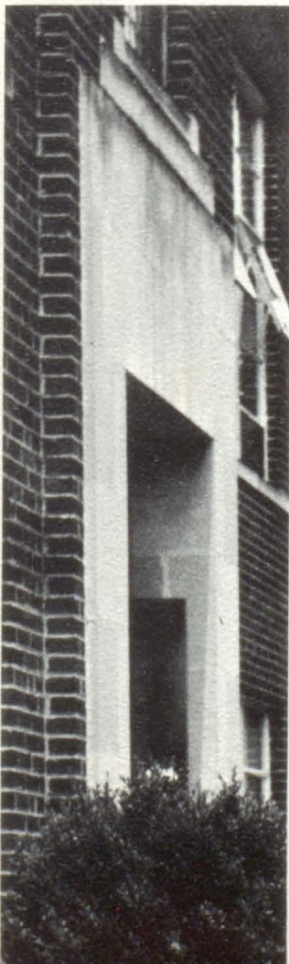

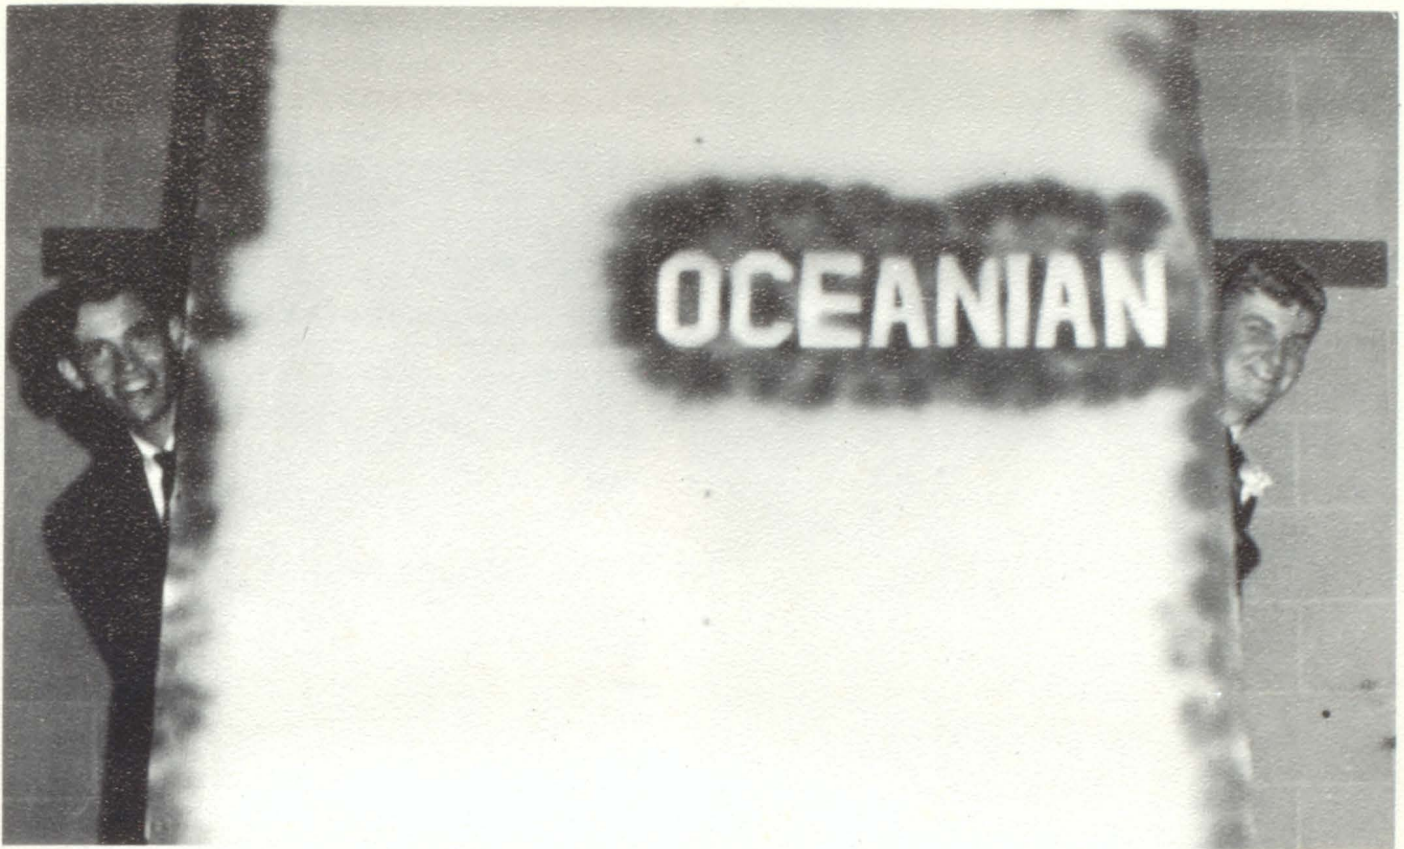

COY BAILEY, JR.

In Memoriam

Well liked and respected by his sophomore classmates, teachers, and all who knew him, Coy was a good student and did his best in the classroom and on the athletic field.

He was a member of the football and track teams.

In his everyday life at home, at school, and in the community, Coy demonstrated the character and qualities to which we all aspire.

Principals Assist

Mr. Short Knows School Problems

Principal Vernon Short has worked to improve the curriculum and facilities of Oceana High School since he was appointed principal in January 1966.

Always willing to help students in any kind of need, he is known for his sense of fair play. He is respected by students, members of the faculty, and the entire community.

Mr. Short is interested in giving the students of Oceana High the best education they can get. His varied experience as teacher, guidance counselor, and assistant principal at this school since 1959 give him special knowledge of its needs and problems. This experience and his concern for each student make him a person of infinite value to the school and community.

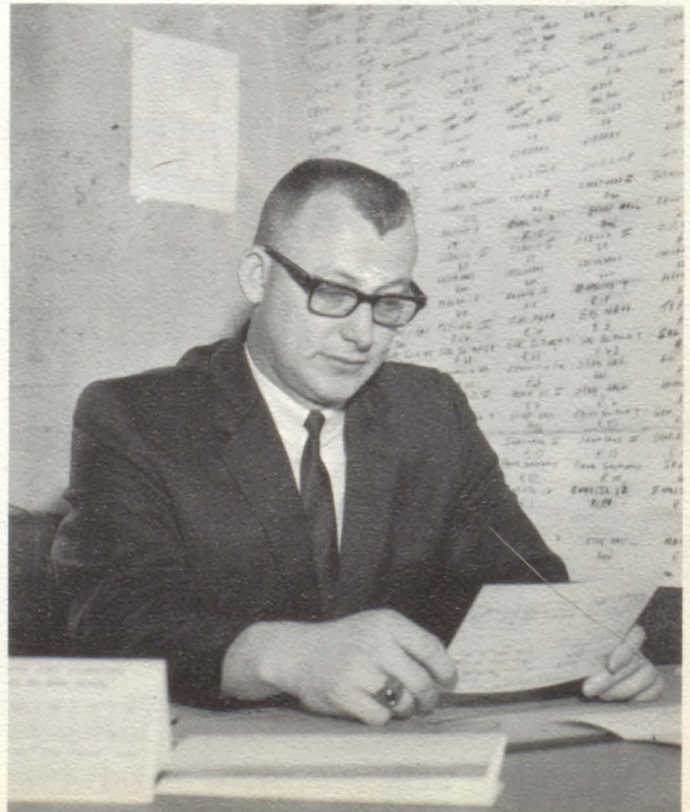

NEEDING ADVICE on their class schedules, seniors Carolyn Miller and Leon Lusk take their problems to Principal Vernon Short.

MR. SHORT checks the activities on the school calendar.

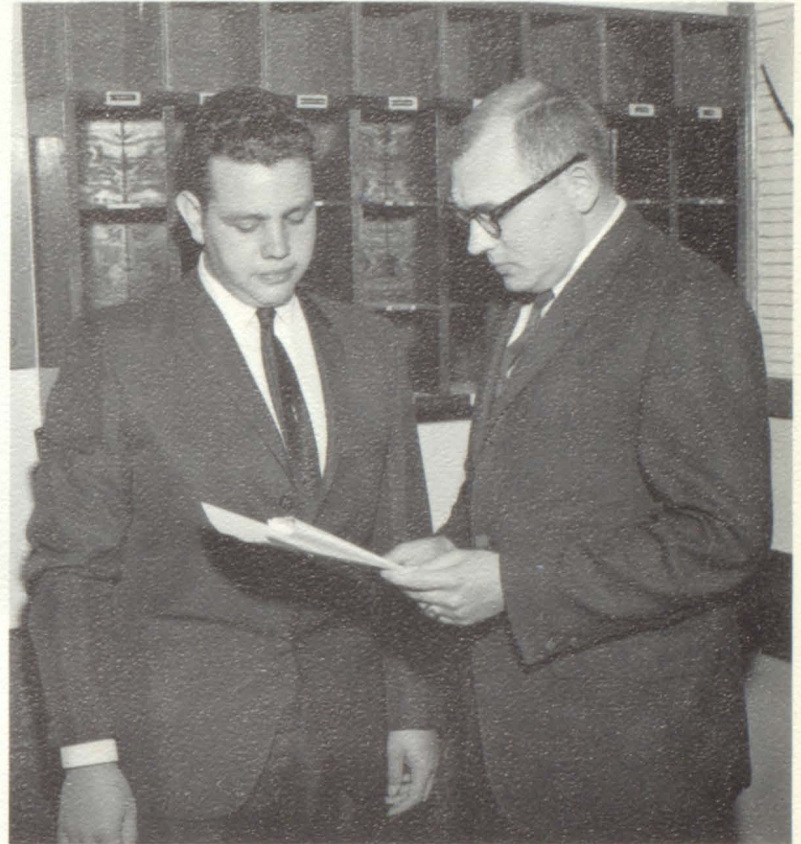

MR. SHORT and happy Coach John Beckelheimer look in on Homecoming Dance after Indian victory.

Students, Work to Improve Curriculum

MR. COOK, an assistant director of the Social Studies Fair, makes a tour of the fair with other officials. With him are Mrs. Virginia Dolan, Concord College instructor who was a judge; Mr. Jim McGrady, Mullens Grade School, Mrs. Mary Thompson, Mullens Junior High; and Mr. Vaughn Cozort, Oceana Grade School, directors.

MR. COOK goes over an outline with senior Darrell Stapleton.

Mr. Cook Sets High Standards

Oceana graduates now in college credit Mr. Ira Cook, Jr., with their excellent preparation for courses in the social studies field.

Mr. Cook was appointed assistant principal this year. A hard worker himself, he expects the best possible effort from every student, not only in the classroom but in every worthwhile endeavor.

Mr. Cook, who joined the faculty in 1962, is a graduate of Concord College and completed the M.A. degree at Marshall University during the summer of 1966. He was graduated from Oceana High in 1959.

MAPS ARE very important to Mr. Cook who teaches social studies.

COLLEGE? JOB? What's next? Mr. Billy Harless, guidance director, gives puzzled seniors Dorothy Watts and Randall Farley information on vocational training and discusses employment opportunities.

HOW MANY girls are absent today? Girls' attendance records are checked daily by Mrs. Jeanette Toler.

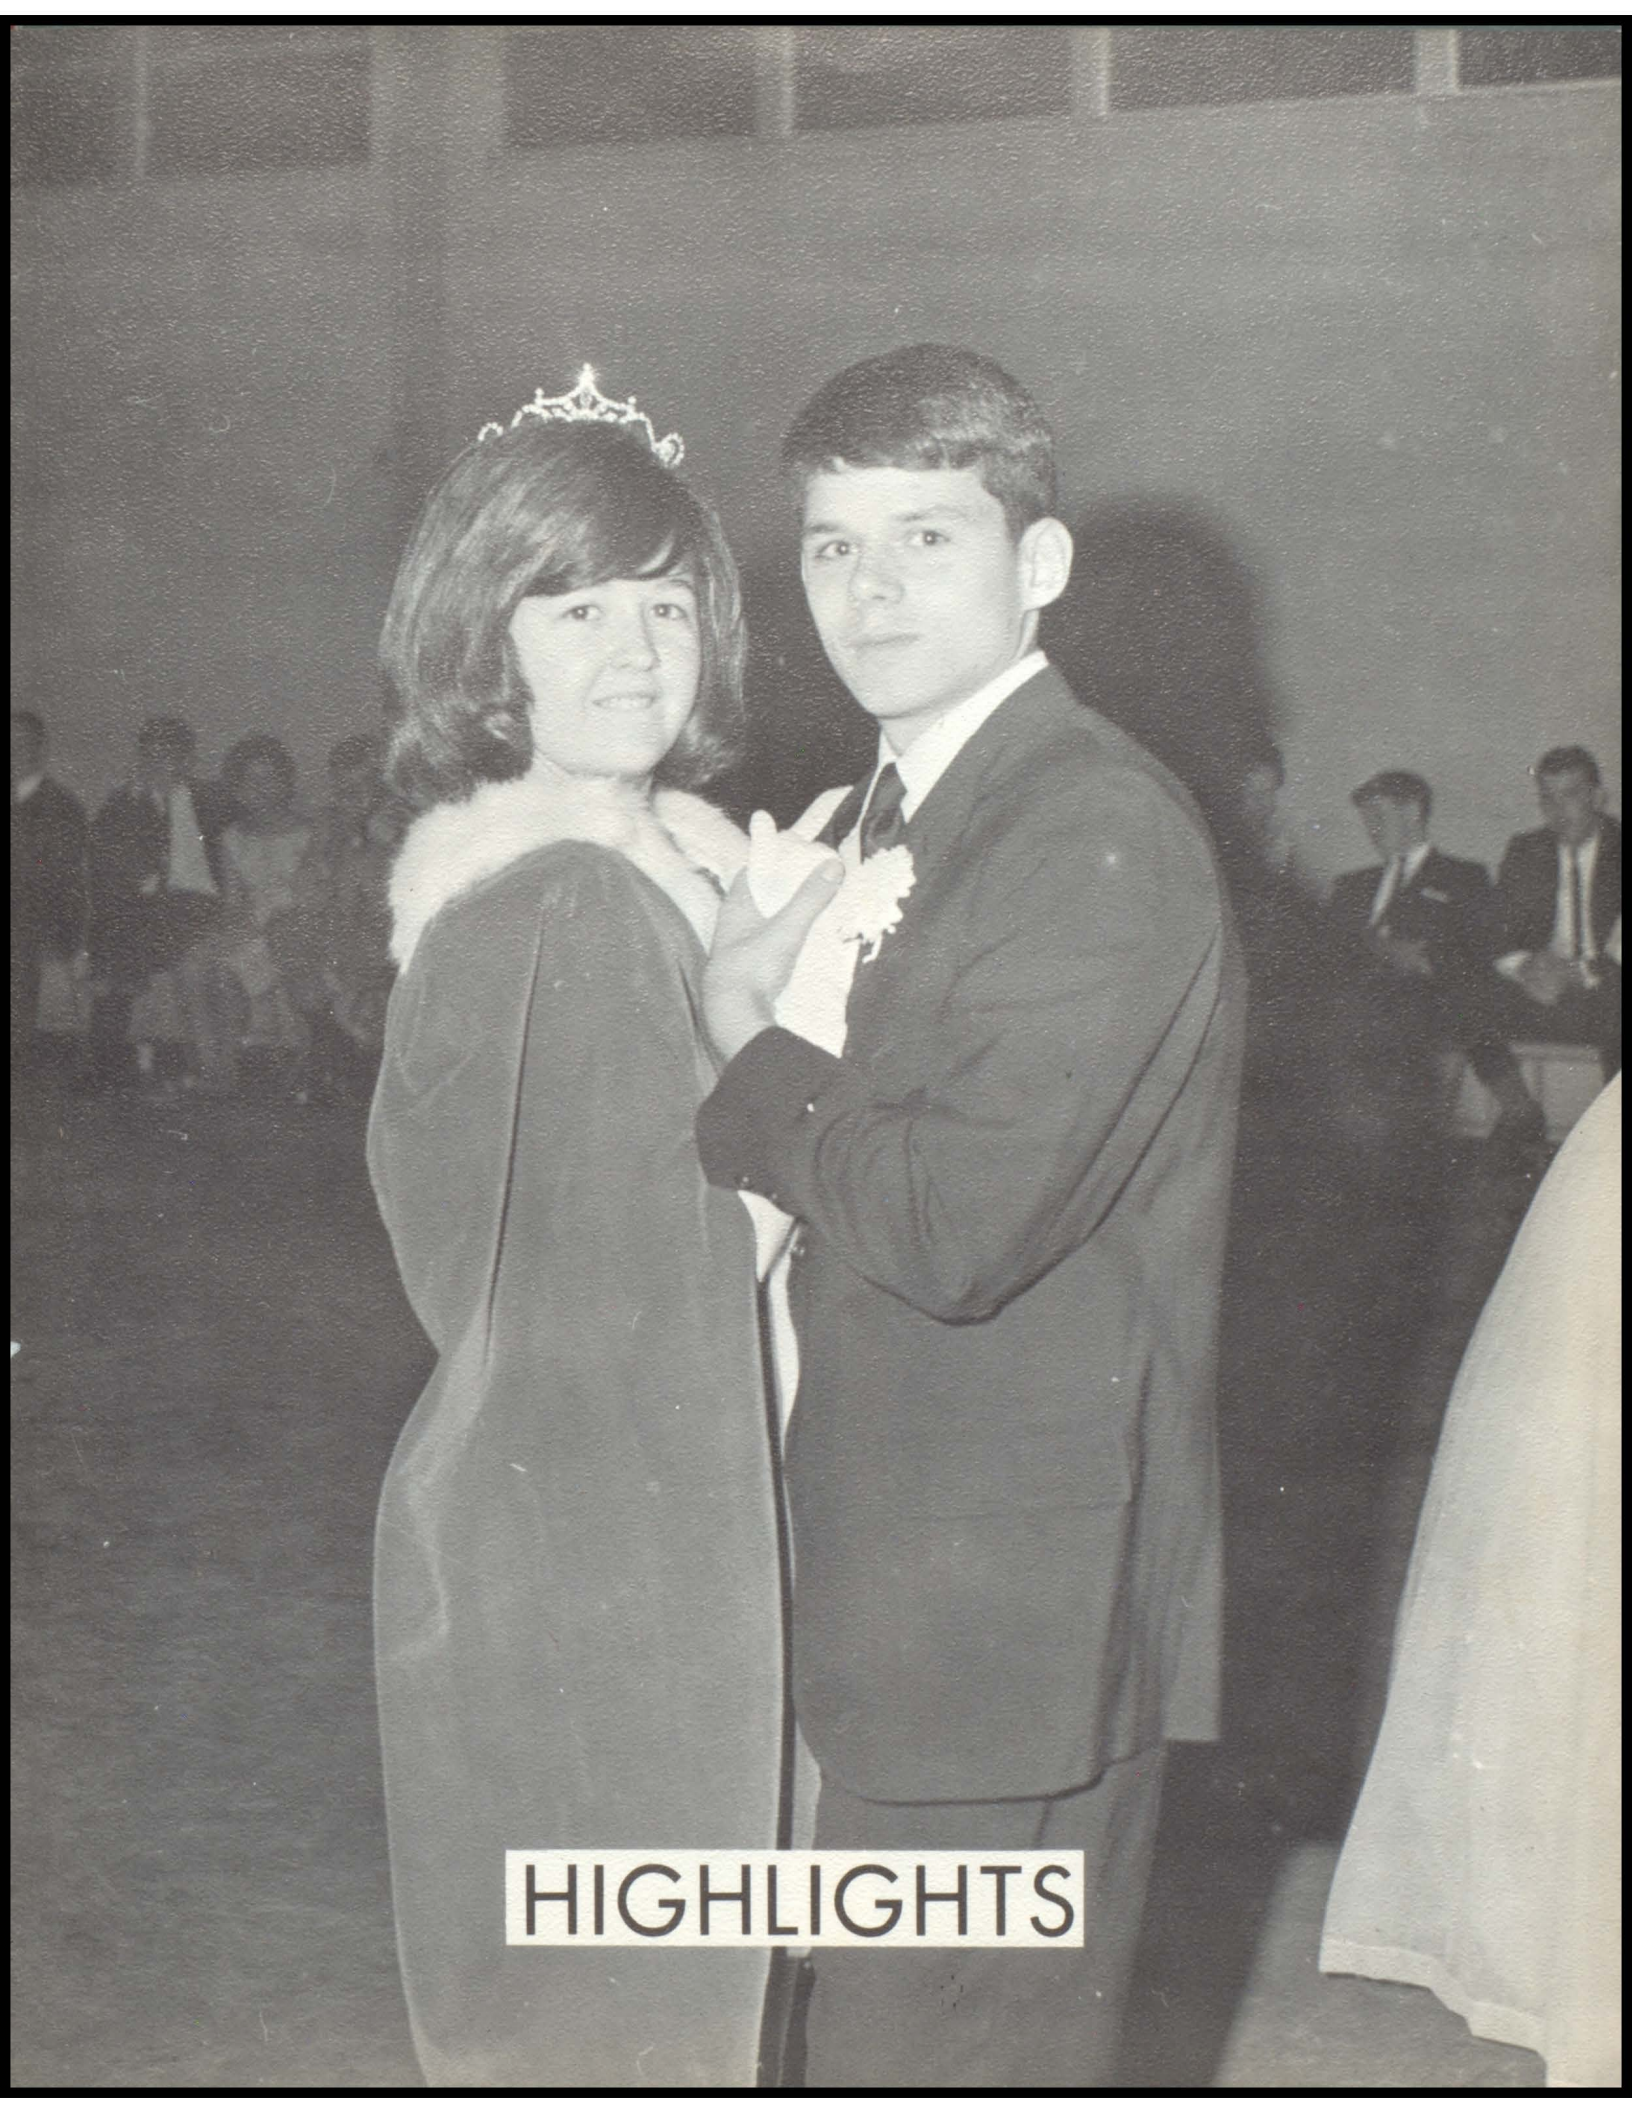

They Solved Our Problems

MAKING OUT his list of absentees for the month, Mr. B. L. Morgan keeps tab on boys' attendance.

HERE IT IS! Mrs. Sherry Brown, school secretary, comes up with the right answer.

Queen Debby Crowned In Halftime Ceremony

To "The Shadow of Your Smile" played by the Oceana High Marching Band, pretty head cheerleader Debby Conley was crowned Homecoming Queen.

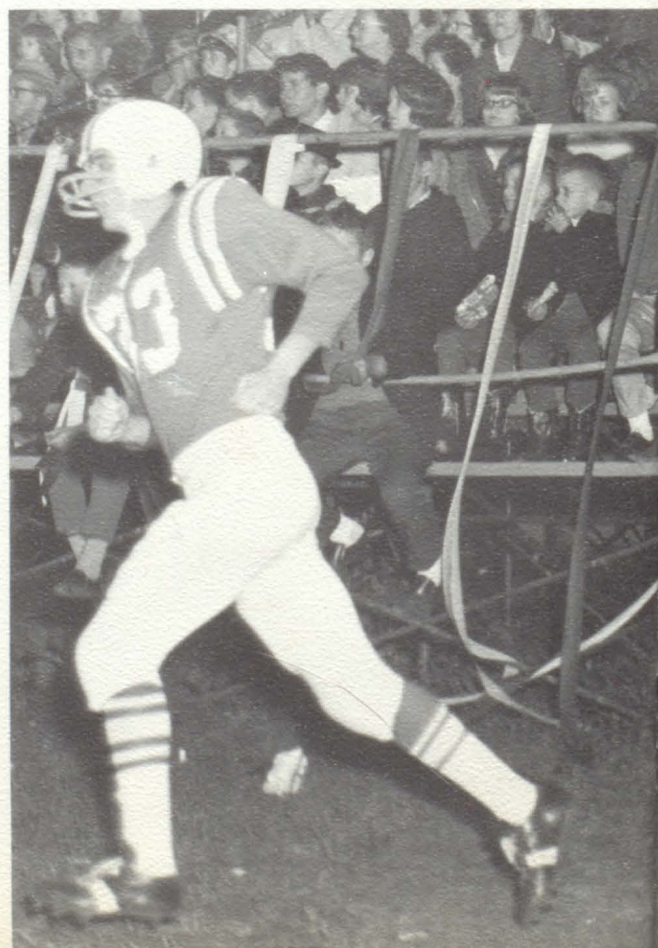

After leading cheers for four years, Debby heard cheers just for her as Pat Jones Toler, last year's queen, placed the crown upon her head.

In the royal party were the queen's honor attendants Beverly Cook, Audrey Toler, Joan Woods, and Donna Thacker. Their escorts were David Gallaher, Billy Harvey, Alan Lively, and Scotty Aliff of the senior class.

Principal Vernon Short presented last year's queen. Cindy Lugar was crownbearer.

Following a final salute from the band, the queen and her court left the field in convertibles to return to grandstand seats to see the Indian football team win over Chapmanville.

The coronation of Queen Debby was a highlight of an exciting day.

Dance Honors Queen Debby

"October Serenade" was the theme chosen for the Homecoming Dance honoring Queen Debby and her royal court.

Decorations of blue and gold, autumn leaves, a floor show, and music of the Rondeaus made the dance a gala one for all.

Students, returning graduates, visitors from nearby schools, and patrons made up a record attendance.

The dance was sponsored by the music and journalism departments.

KENTUCKY GENTLEMEN provided lively music at the junior-senior prom and won approval of dancers.

GUARDING CROWN, Lisa Lugar watches the dancers as she patiently awaits the big moment for her and for some happy senior girl--coronation of the yet unknown Prom Queen of 1967.

Everyone Enjoyed

HOW WILL it go? Chaperone with special interest in the prom is Mrs. Betty Nutter, mother of the junior class president, Sandy Nutter.

"LOOKS GOOD enough to eat," says Dwight Laxton to Peggy Hatfield as he eyes the inviting refreshment table.

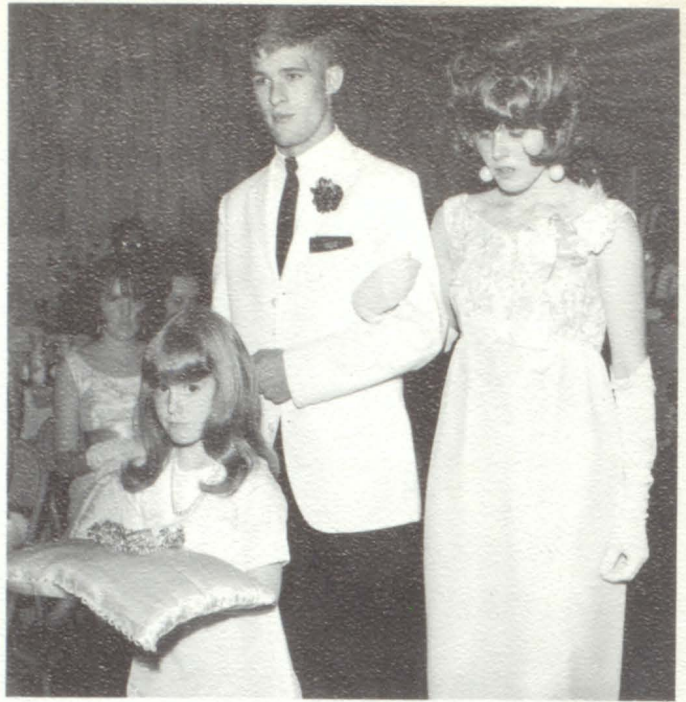

"THREE COINS in a Fountain" is the theme song of the prom. Ginny Lynn Cook sings it for prom royalty.

KEEP THAT music going! Everyone enjoyed dancing to the lively rhythm of the Kentucky Gentlemen.

Beverly Cook '67 Prom Queen

TEARFUL BUT happy, Prom Queen Beverly Cook, escort Carl Fleenor, and crownbearer Lisa Lugar begin the coronation march.

LOVELY BEVERLY COOK is crowned Prom Queen of 1967 by Sandy Nutter, president of the junior class.

A GIFT for Her Majesty, a locket, is presented by her escort, Carl Fleenor. Lisa resolves to be a Prom Queen too.

SERENE PROM attendant Dee Dee Stewart and her escort David Gallaher are unaware of the problem of Jack Goof and Brenda Cook who must do a rush job in getting the queen's locket ready.

"WE SHOULD have more junior-senior proms," Kaye Blackburn tells Alan Lively.

Judy Davis Is Crowned 1967 Band Queen

Judy Davis was crowned Band Queen in half-time ceremonies at the Trap Hill-Oceana basketball game February 24.

Escorting the lovely queen was Randy Blankenship. The crownbearer was little Amy Jill Greer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Greer.

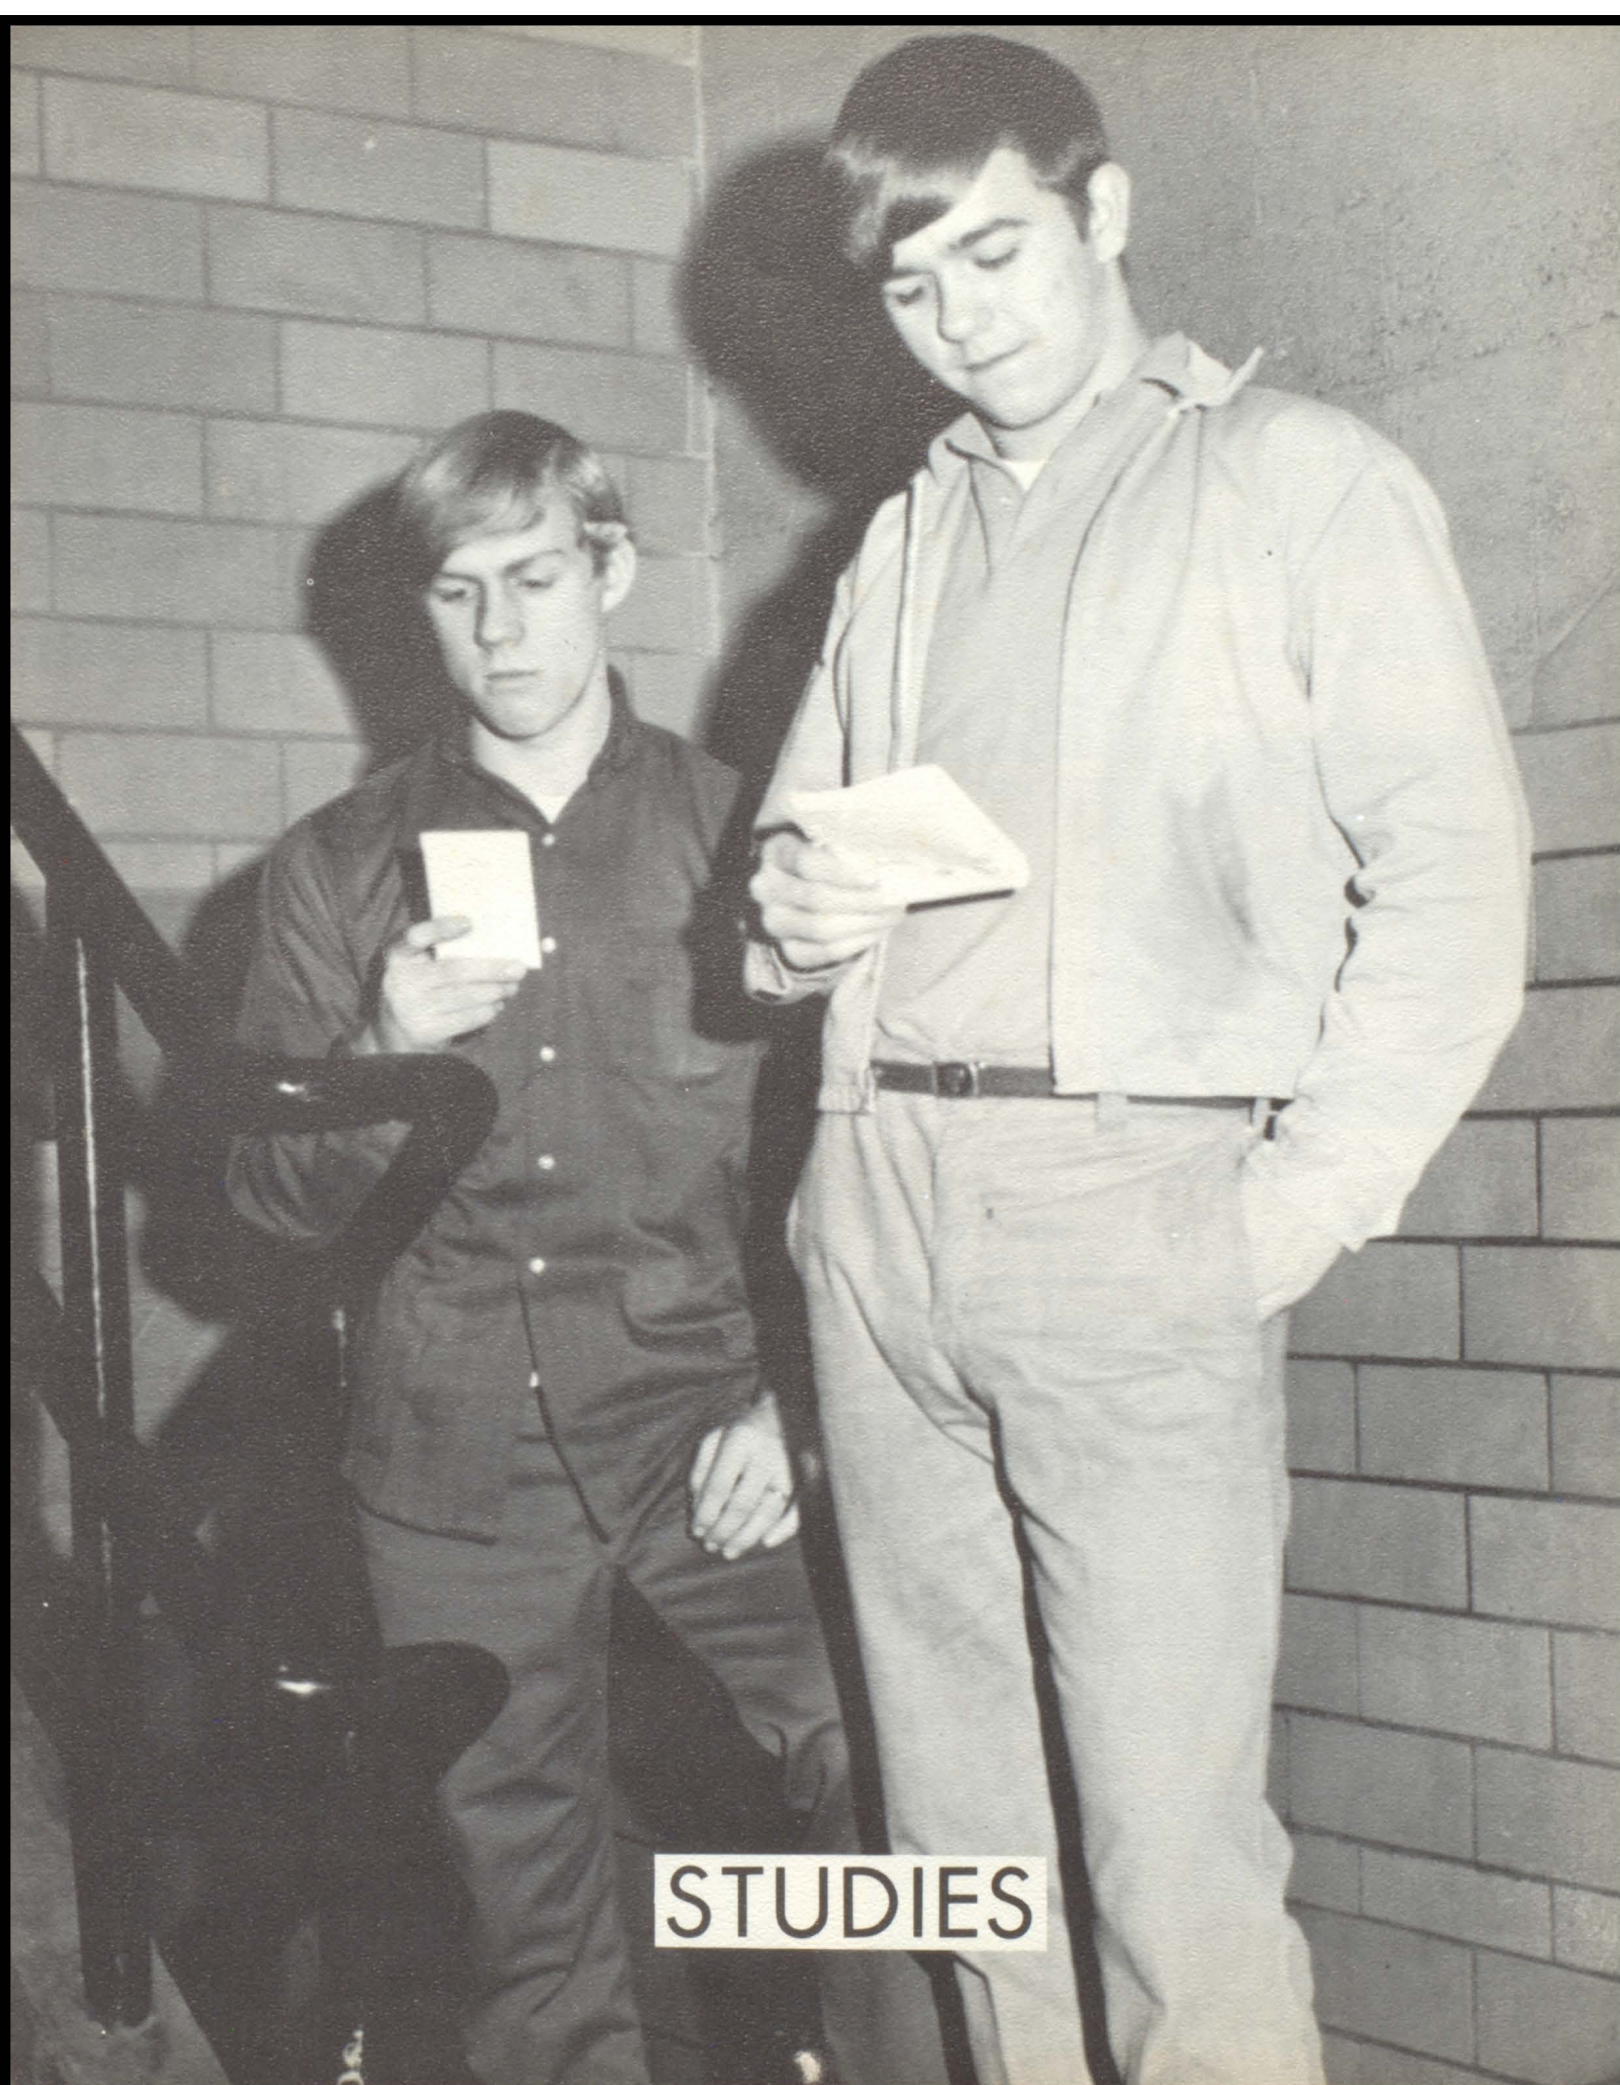

Judy was crowned by Lynda Preece, 1966 Queen. Her attendants were Kathy Lusk, who was escorted by Fred Lovins; Audrey Daniels, escorted by Wesley Toler; and alternate Brenda Cook, escorted by Larry Baldwin.

Majorettes Diane Mitchem, Darice

Lester, Betty Cook, and Judy Stewart presented a bouquet of carnations to the queen and corsages to the attendants.

President of the band and assistant head majorette, Judy plays first flute and piccolo, first chair. She has been an all-county member four years and was flag girl in her junior year. She is a member of Modern Music Masters and the all-area Band.

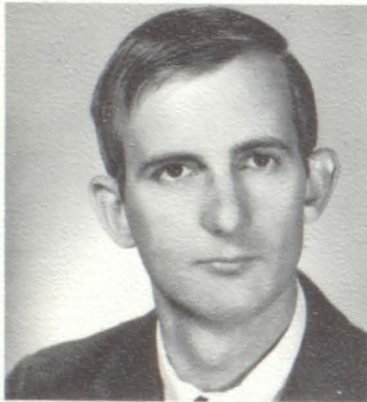

The Band Queen and her court were honored at a dance following the coronation.

Math Department Gets Modern Lab

Installation of a modern laboratory for improvement of math instruction was a highlight of the school improvement program.

New student desks with geometrically designed surfaces, a teacher's desk equipped with overhead projector, a chalkboard assembly with a drafting machine, and a trigonometry demonstration panel are among the addition.

A large demonstration slide rule and numerous visual aids were included. The new equipment enables teachers to devote more individual attention to students.

Students Learn by Doing

Responsibilities of the home rest upon the homemaker. In order to assume these responsibilities girls must have knowledge of cooking, sewing, caring for children, and managing money.

These practical problems are stressed in the home economics department.

This year a programed unit child care was quite successful.

Personal grooming, home furnishings, fabrics, and the role of the homemaker in community life are among only a few of the many areas of study for future homemakers.

FHA'ER OF the Year Gwen Jones works on next year's schedule as one of her duties as president-elect.

Gwen Jones 'FHA'er of Year'

Future Homemakers, with a membership of eighty-nine girls, carried on numerous projects during the year.

In October three representatives of the club, Pam Baldwin, Gwen Jones, and Melissa Snider, with the sponsor, Mrs. Virginia Smith, attended the Regional Conference held at Concord College. Members sold fruit cakes and cookbooks during the first semester.

In April Nancy Shannon was crowned 1967 FHA Sweetheart and the annual spring formal.

Ginny Lynn Cook, president, received the annual club award.

Gwen Jones was elected "FHA'er of the Year." She was vice president of recreation in her sophomore year and this year assisted with decorations and publicity for the annual Sweetheart Ball.

The club is now sponsoring the sale of postcards featuring Oceana High School in color and plans to add another card with a picture of Laurel Park.

Conley, Melissa Snider, historian-reporter; and Betty Powell. They made a study of teaching as a career and sponsored "Teachers' Day."

Four New Clubs

SCIENCE CLUB member Larry Canterbury blows a glass bubble over a Bunsen burner as other members look on. They are Larry Cook, Bill Drake, SNAPPY COLOR GUARD carried the flags of the United States and West Virginia. Members are Roy Lester, Billy Bailey, Steve Gibson and Billy Lively.

Always on the March

Directed by Mr. Thomas Goheen, the band played at all school football games and most of the school pep meetings. It participated in several parades in Oceana, including the Homecoming Parade in October.

The majorettes, led by Betty Cook, performed in the annual variety show and the Majorette Festival in Logan.

In February, Judy Davis was crowned the sixth Band Queen of Oceana High School.

In April, the Oceana band was host to other county bands for the county band clinic. Mr. Alfred Blatter and Mr. Tom S. O'Connell, faculty members of Marshall University, conducted the two divisions of the county band.

The band, with the chorus, presented a Christmas concert and a spring concert.

In May, members traveled to Bluefield for the All-Area Band Festival.

Chorus Plays Important Role

The 1967 chorus began its year by planning and rehearsing for the Christmas concert. The concert was presented to the school and public.

In the spring, the chorus presented an Easter Cantata, also performed for the public.

Three members were named to the All-State Chorus. They were Randy Blankenship, Ginny Lynn Cook, and Falous Asbury.

At the awards assembly in the early spring, Joan Woods received the Chorus Award.

Mr. Thomas P. Goheen was chorus director.

ALL-STATE Chorus members were Randy Blankenship, Ginny Lynn Cook, and Falous Asbury. They traveled to Parkersburg for the concert.

GINNY COOK accompanied chorus at concerts. She has been accompanist four years.

GEORGE HAGER was a soloist in the Easter Cantata.

Headlines and Deadlines Keep News Staff Occupied

During 1967, the new TIMES' staff gained experience by starting off on the right foot. They learned many things including the meaning of the word "deadline".

Shawn Justice, co-editor of the TIMES, received third place honors in the RALEIGH REGISTER'S "Young Journalist of the Year" contest.

The staff worked together to raise money to send four staff members to Ohio University summer workshops.

Those attending the workshops were Debbie Eastridge, Gary Baldwin, Janice Browning, and Sharon Perkins.

CHECKING HEADLINES and material for the Christmas editorial page are co-editors Shawn Justice and Mike Frazier.

DIGGING FOR facts and dates on basketball tournaments are sports editor and writer Steve Browning and John Thacker.

BUSY LOOKING for material to use in the next issue are news editors and reporters Kay Stines, Karen Rollins, Debbie Eastridge, Sharon Perkins, and Gary Baldwin, new staff members.

WORKING ON the subscription list are Janice Browning, Delores Lovins, and Betty Dancy.

FINISHED PRODUCT is enjoyed by Judy Mullins and Eddie Short, soph subscribers.

SPIRIT BUILDERS of 1967 were members of the Pep Club. They were led by varsity and junior high cheerleaders. Junior leaders were Norma Neal, Charlotte Hurley, Kathy Harper, Drema Stewart, and Madonna Hager. Senior leaders were Joyce Neal, Kaye Blackburn, Debby Conley, Ellen Walker, and Karen Rollins. The club organized a flash-card section.

Indians Finish 7-2-1

The 1966 football season for Oceana ended on a successful note. The Tribe, under the reins of Coach John Beckelheimer, achieved another winning season at 7-2-1 and saw quarterback "Tuffy" Fleenor throw 15 touchdown passes, fullback James Justice score 72 points and gain 875 yards, and Larry Mathis catch 9 touchdown passes.

Six members of the team won berths on the All-Wyoming County team. They were Fleenor, Justice, and Mathis, center Mike Rush, and tackles Joe Bailey and David Miller.

Wins for the Oceanians were over Stoco 19-0, Marsh Fork 34-0, Pineville 34-24, Chapmanville 34-7, Iaeger 26-6, Trap Hill 34-15, and Baileysville 63-9.

Fourteen lettermen graduated. They were Mathis, Justice, Bailey, Fleenor, Rush, David Miller, Larry Miller, Danny Miller, Monty Murphy, Buck Smith, Falous Asbury, Raynell Toler, Kerry Hill, and Damon Brown.

Sophs Dominate Team

Basketball 1966-67 was plagued by the aching pain of inexperience and Coach Paul Greer was left with his second losing season in ten years at Oceana High.

The win-loss count for the campaign was 8-14 with a starting line-up that had three sophomores, a junior, and a senior.

Despite the record, the 1966-67 crew gave every one of their foes a good battle with a one-man scoring machine in Larry Mathis, who led area scoring with a 28.8 average.

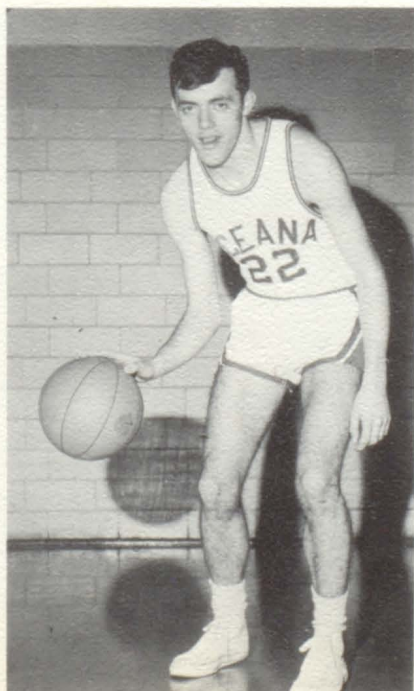

Only Mathis was taken by graduation so 1967-68 should be a good year. Experience of the fine group of sophomores should be a big factor.

"THREE-ON-ONE is plenty of fun," exclaim Indian basketballers Bill Durbin, Bill Armachain, and Ted Lively in the home Williamson game. The hustling Indians gave the highly rated Wolfpack a run for their money before going down 98-82.

HERE HE IS--Mr. Scoring Machine himself, Oceana's Larry Mathis. All-State AA, Associated Press "Player of the Week," captain All-Sectional basketball team, and area scoring champ with a 28.8 average.

WATCHING HIS rebuilding campaign at work, Coach Paul Greer, right, sits with assistant John Beckelheimer. During his ten years at OHS, Greer's teams have won two state championships and have twice been runners-up for state honors.

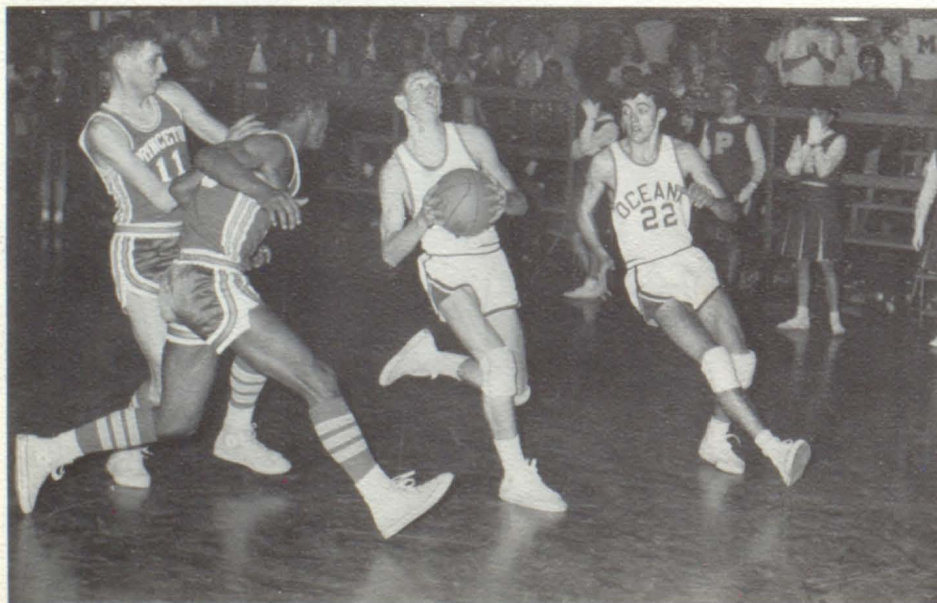

MEET THE STARTERS--Sophomores Bill Durbin, Tommy Stewart, and Bill Armachain; senior captain Larry Mathis; and junior Ted Lively. With Mathis the only team member to graduate, the Indians are expected to make a good showing next year.

Mathis Leads Starting Five

OUTRUNNING HIS Princeton opponents, Ted Lively, Indian guard, gallops to the basket with senior scoring ace Larry Mathis in a home contest.

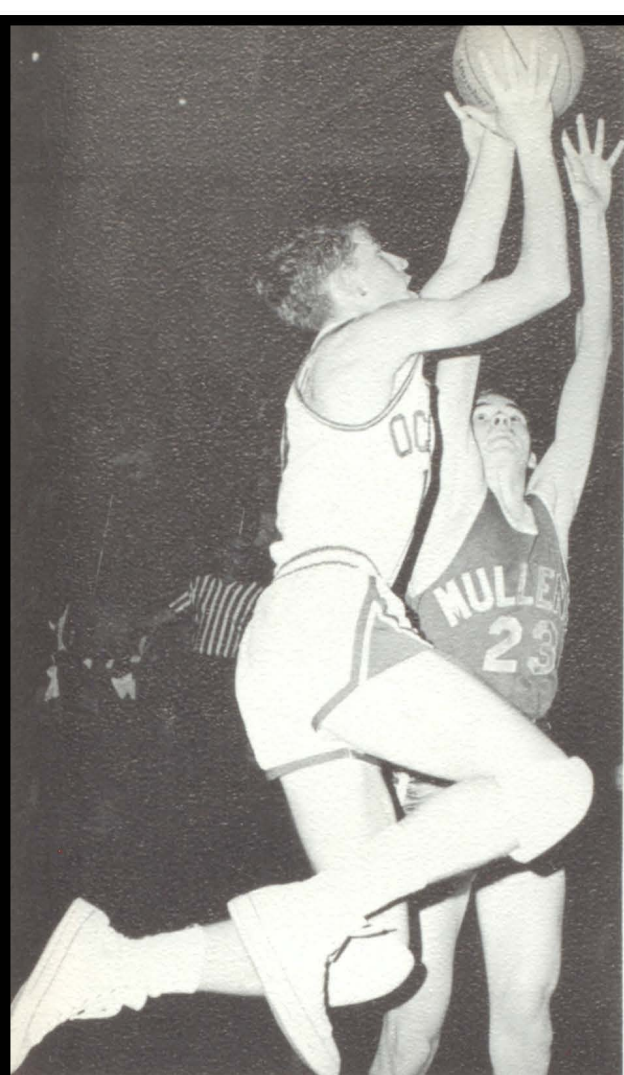

Despite inexperience, the 1966-67 team was an interesting one to watch.

Senior Larry Mathis was the only returning starter from 1965-66. An all-stater, Mathis averaged some 28 odd points a contest and set a new school scoring record with a 60-point performance against Gary.

Junior Ted Lively was the primary playmaker for the Indians.

Three sophomores made up the rest of the line-up. Bill Armachain, an all-tourney selectee, was the center; Tom Stewart and Bill Durbin controlled the forward posts.

ON TO another score--Senior ace Larry Mathis slips by a pair of Princeton cagers for a well-earned basket in the regular season campaign.

Randy Lafferty, Larry Harless, Dickie Bragg, and Coach Gene Gilliland. Under Gilliland's leadership, the team overcame its height disadvantage to win five.

Papooses Show Promise

Oceana Papooses ran into a stiff year of basketball, but still managed to pull out a 5-12 record under the guidance of Coach Gene Gilliland.

Wins for the Papooses were over Holden 37-35, Pineville 41-40, Baileysville 43-33, and Herndon 45-42 and 50-40.

Pineville was a rough competitor in the Wyoming County tourney for the Oceanians and dropped them 36-28.

Co-captains for the Paps were guard George Spolarich and center John Cook.

Bright spots were limited but the juniormen showed outright hustle and the young and inexperienced squad showed steady improvement.

Spolarich and Cook were joined by Randy Lafferty, Dally Maynard, and Larry Harless in the starting line-up.

Blankenship, Haynes Wrestle in State Tourney

Oceana's fast improving wrestling program continued in the 1966-67 campaign as Coach Ronald Rose's tribe finished at 7-8.

The Oceanians were victorious over Pineville 31-21 and 34-16, Man 53-5, Sophia 34-14 and 22-0, Mullens 26-21, and Beckley 25-22.

Jim Blankenship, winner of the "most outstanding wrestler" award three consecutive years was the leading matman with a 15-0 regular season showing and an 18-1 overall record.

Junior David Haynes, like senior Blankenship, finished in glory as he sported a 12-2 regular season count and a 15-3 overall showing.

The Blankenship-Haynes trip to the state tourney made history at Oceana High for they were the first to accomplish the feat.

Blankenship and John Price were hit by graduation.

Seniors for next year's squad will be Mike Thacker, Larry Baldwin, Randall Ellis, J.R. White, Dale Rollins, David Haynes, and Danny Harvey.

The 1967-68 team will be experienced and could go a long way.

JIM BLANKENSHIP (top) and David Haynes prepare for their history-making trip to the state wrestling tournament at Morgantown. Blankenship finished the season 18-1 and Haynes 15-3.

CHEERLEADERS Karen Rollins, Ellen Walker, Debby Conley, Kaye Blackburn, and Joyce Neal are ready to lead a yell for the football team.

CHEERLEADERS Karen Rollins, Ellen Walker, Kaye Blackburn, and Joyce Neal ride in the annual Homecoming Parade which honored Queen Debby Conley.

Pep Leaders Build School Enthusiasm

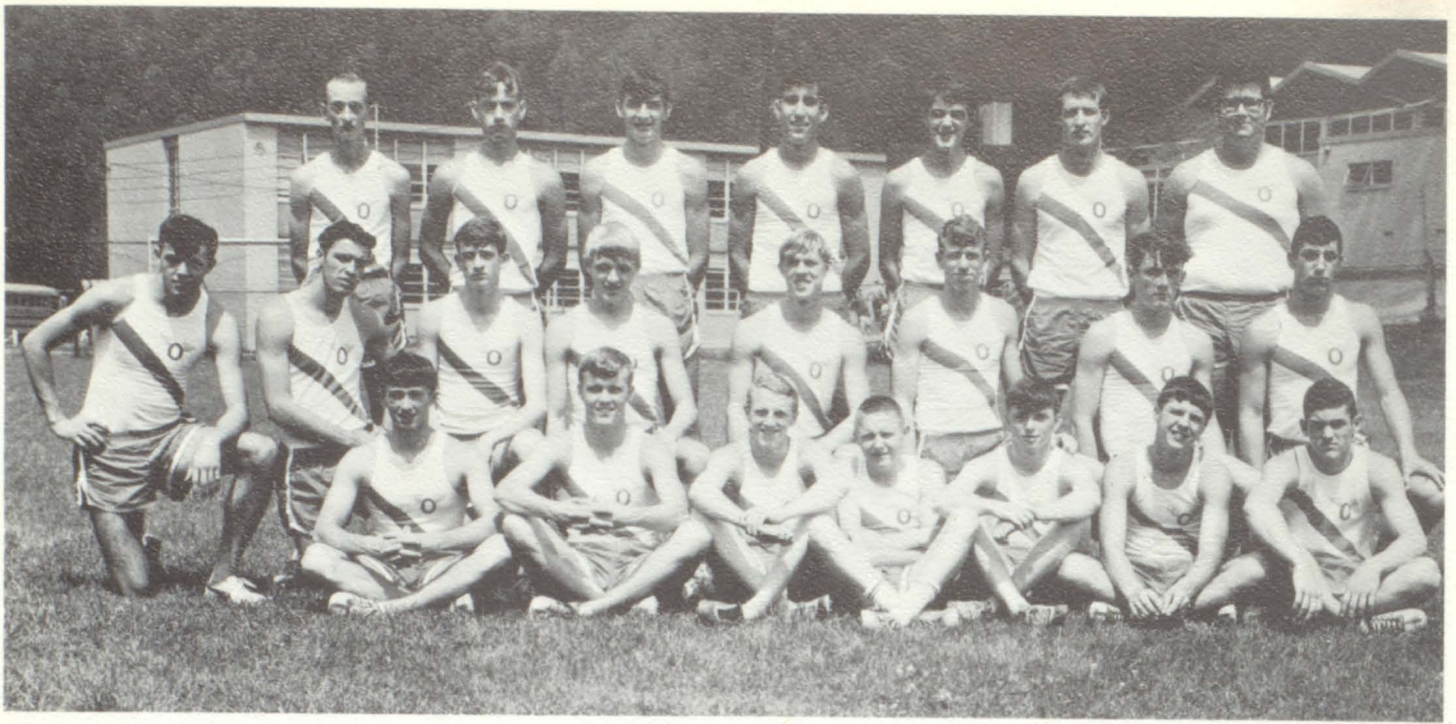

The varsity cheerleaders of 1966-67 did an outstanding job in creating the kind of enthusiasm that Oceana High needed.

When the football team was in a hard place or when the basketball team was down, the yelling of the cheerleaders always brought a thunderous comeback. The girls were untiring in developing new techniques to get to the crowd at pep meetings and always came up with clever students and new yells.

DEBBY CONLEY ended a four-year cheerleading career at Oceana High. As a freshman, she was head junior high cheerleader. She has been varsity cheerleader for three years, being head this year.

Tracksters Take Coalfield Crown

Oceana continued its dominance of Wyoming County in track during the 1967 campaign by easily winning the County Crown and placed itself among the powers when it bolstered a 73 1/2 point attack to win the Coalfield Conference meet.

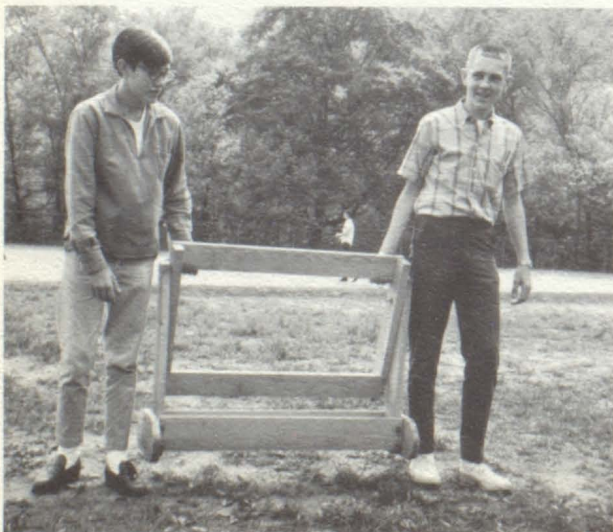

"Trackster of the Year" honors went to senior Troy Belcher, a 440-runner and relay man who was outstanding in the clutch.

Other standouts were sophomores Bill Armachain, Don Stafford, Tom Stewart, and Dick Cook.

Graduating seniors were Troy Belcher, Mike Rush, Raymond Belcher, Bill Harvey, Larry Mathis, Larry Cook, Joe Bailey, and James Justice.

PLACING THE newly acquired hurdles on the track is one of the many chores of managers James Laxton and Roy Wooten.

WE WON THIS! Tracksters Troy Belcher, Mike Rush, Raymond Belcher, Larry Mathis, Coach John Beckelheimer, Joe Bailey, and Bill Harvey exhibit the Coalfield Conference trophy at a pep meeting.

SOPHOMORE DISTANCE runner and record breaker Bill Armachain gets help from the crowd in one of his startling 440 runs. He was a double winner in the Coal-field Conference meet, taking the 880 and 440.

Cindermen In Action

JUST TO insure Oceana's dominance of the county track meet, Wilbert Lively puts a little extra in his shop-put heave to take first place honors.

BIRDLAND BEAT? No, it's Larry Mathis in action.

"TRACKSTER OF the Year" Troy Belcher gives it all he has in one of his relay runs. He helped set a new 440 relay record.

RUNNING THE 220, senior James Justice turns it on through the home stretch to place in home meet.

TYING MULLENS in the County Junior High Meet held at Oceana were: FIRST ROW: Ronnie Toler, Larry Lambert, Tommy Dyke, Teddy Bailey, Raymond Walker, George Spolarich, Johnny Maynard, Adrian Maynard. SECOND ROW:

Papooses Tie in County Meet

Oceana Junior High finished its 1966-67 campaign with a tie with Mullens in the Wyoming County Junior High Meet.

Since the annual event started in 1964, Oceana has had three wins and one tie.

Standouts were Tim Stewart and Dally

Maynard who both set school records in the competition.

Tim set 440 and broad jump records while Dally posted his in the shot. Other standouts were Larry Lambert, Earl Stewart, George Spolarich, and Adrian Maynard.

DOUBLE WINNER Dally Maynard readies for his wind-up in the discus throw. His other event was the shot-put which he won.

FROSH HIGHJUMPER Randy Lafferty exhibits unusual form in the County meet to place.

NIP AND TUCK in the 440 relay -- Papoose runner Larry Lambert struggles to pass an opponent.

VERSATILE TIM Stewart clears the bar in his own style at the county track meet. He also competed in the broad jump, 440, and 100. Moving up to varsity competition after junior high season, he ran the 2-mile relay.

They Cheered for the Papooses

CHEERING THE Papoosemen throughout another year's competition were Kathy Harper, head; Drema Stewart, Madonna Hager, Charlotte Hurley, and Norma Neal. These pretty cheerleaders led the peppy junior high cheering section.

HOMEROOM 12-3 Champs played sharp basketball to win intramural honors. Proud players at front are Mike Kucek, Darrell Kennedy, Falous Asbury, Carl Smith, and Johnny Thacker. Standing are Maynford Henry, Raymond Belcher, Wade Murphy, Alan Lively, and Arlie Brunty. The 12-3 team upset 12-1 in the final game.

TROPHY WON by 12-3 is displayed by Larry Mathis who coached the victorious team.

Intramurals Create Interest

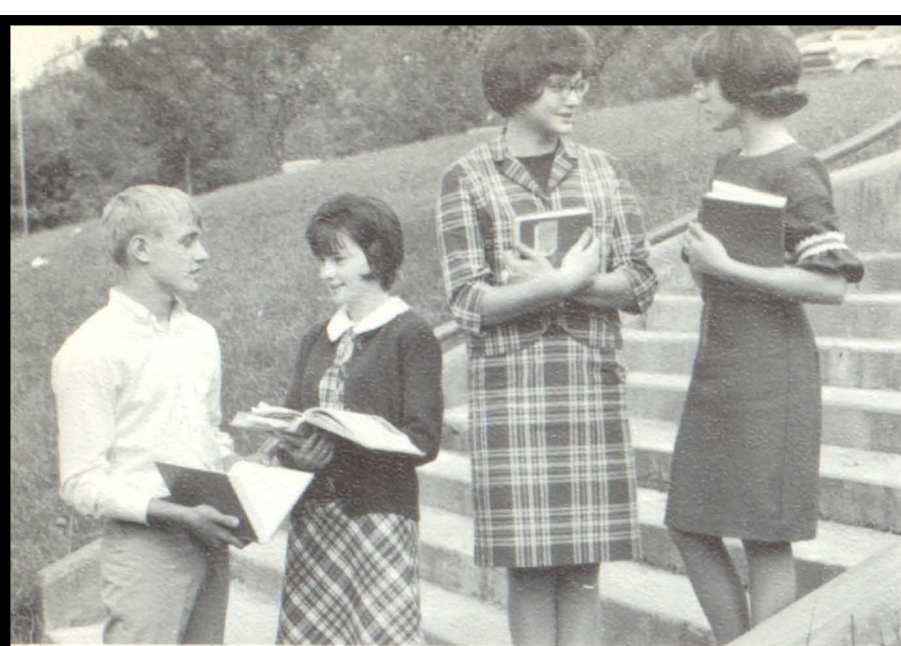

GIRLS' TOURNEY honors went to 10-4 homeroom. Happy after their victory are Odett Berta, Sharon Osborne, Glenna Walker, Sandra Short, Jerri Abshire, and Phyllis Steele, who happily gives the victory sign.

I GIVE UP! Baffled referee John Cook does just that when the girls battle over the ball, giving him a hard way to go. Holding on are Phyllis Steele, Betsy Greer, Sandra Short, Judy Stewart, Freda Moore, and Odett Berta. These girls are very serious players.

COMMENCEMENT

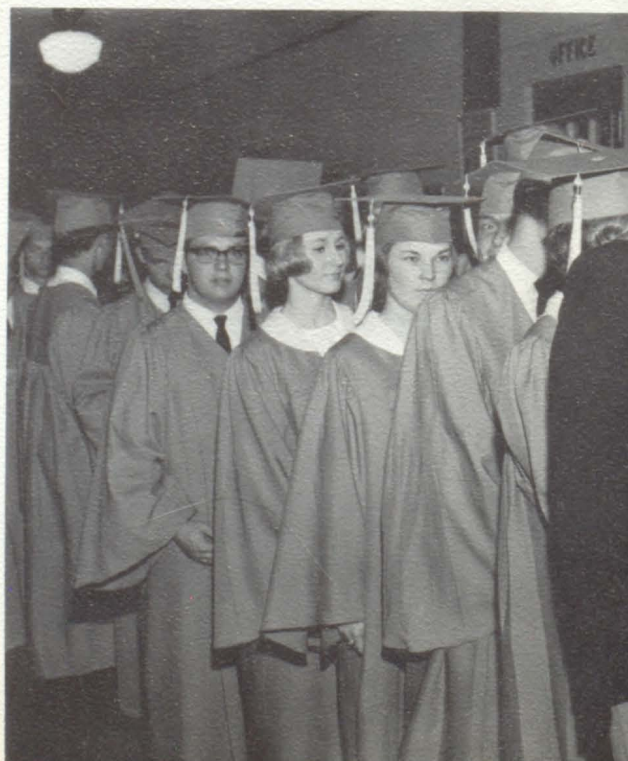

LAST MINUTE attention is given to Rodney Lusk's tie by Enoch Toler.

CHECKING ON decorations, senior sponsors Mr. Jennings Barrett, Mr. Robert Knight, and Mrs. Barrett find everything in excellent order.

'Without the Past

SENIORS OF '67 enter the gymnasium to "Pomp and Circumstance."

"FACING A Fast Future" was the subject of Rev. Norman Morgan, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Logan, who addressed the graduating class. With him on the speaker's platform are Rev. Sam Smith of the Kopperston Presbyterian Church and Principal Vernon Short.

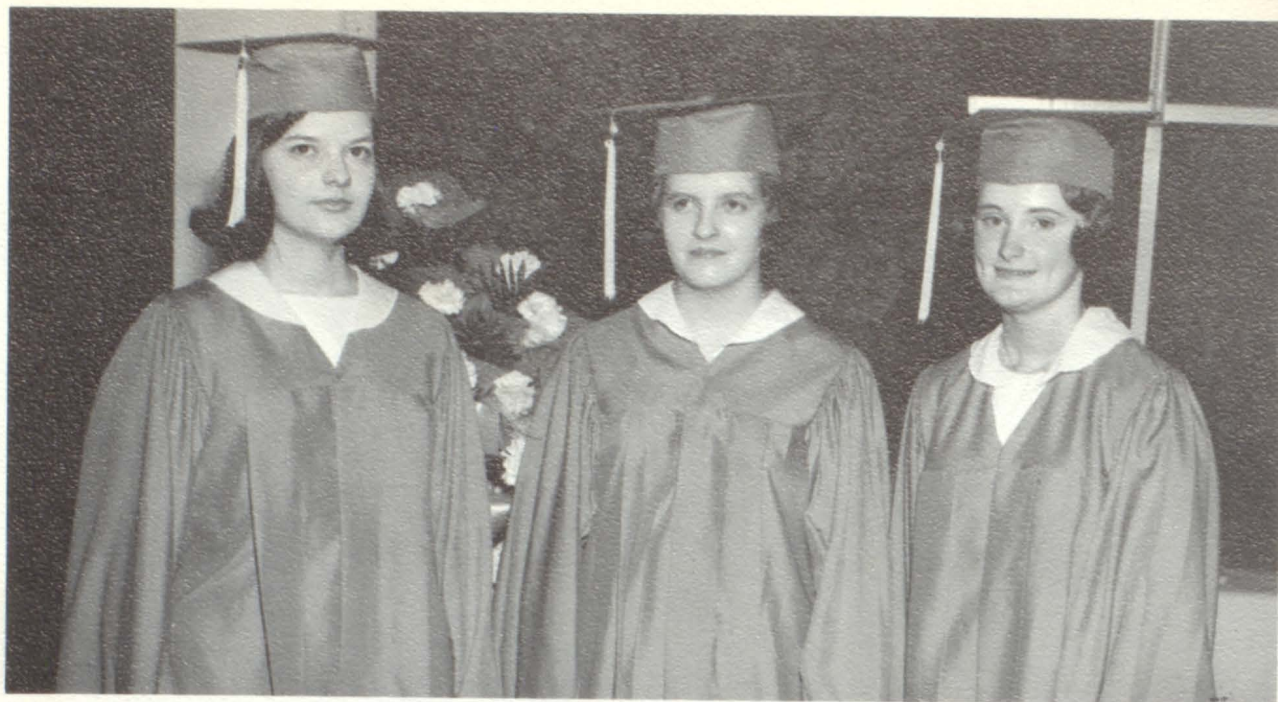

MARCH IS played by Mr. Fred Shannon, county music supervisor, who is a former Oceana High School music director.

There Can Be No Future'

SENIORS FOLLOW honor guard.

HONOR GUARDS Janet Walls and Larry Sullivan lead the recessional.

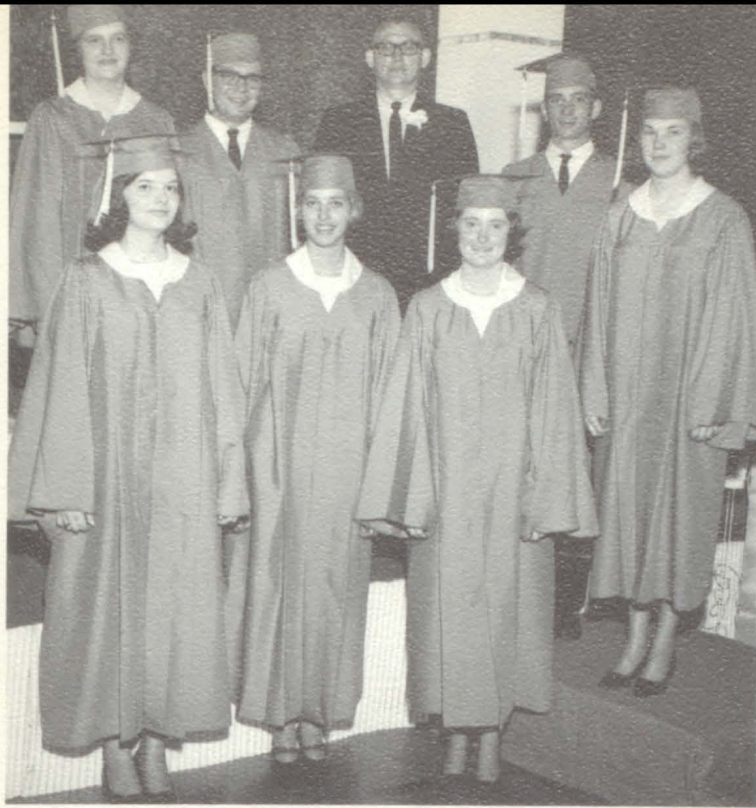

SCHOLASTIC LEADERS of the Class of '67 and commencement speakers were Betty Ritchie, valedictorian; Linda Paynter, honorarian; and Virginia Lynn Cook, salutatorian.

WAS IT so bad after all? Each senior has his own thoughts as he awaits his diploma and looks to the future.

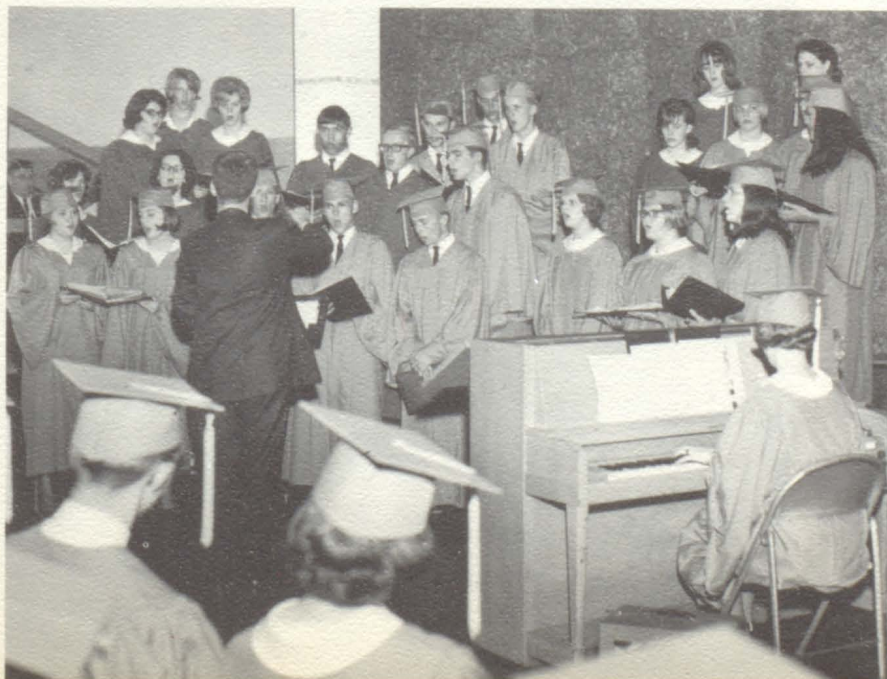

FOURTEEN MEMBERS of the class were graduated with honors. With Principal Vernon Short are Betty Ritchie, Sandra Philyaw, Virginia Lynn Cook, Linda Paynter, Steve Dillon, Ellis Toler, and Ann Lusk. Other honor graduates were Donnie Johnson, Jimmy Travis, Joe Bailey, Ruby Morgan, Debby Conley, Bill Harvey and Jimmy Blankenship.

"THANKS, DAD." What do you say when your father hands you your high school diploma? This was the problem of Ginny Lynn Cook, whose father Mr. Ronald Cook, county social studies supervisor, presented diplomas to the graduating class. He is a former Oceana principal.

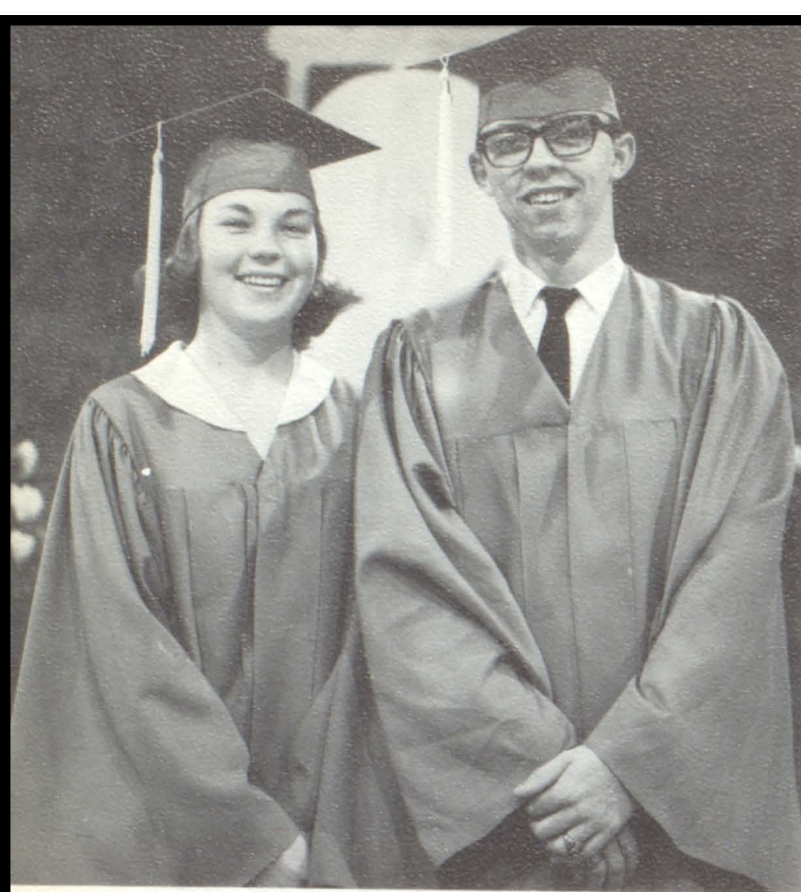

'Of Footprints and Time' Is Commencement Theme

CHORUS SINGS "Let There Be Music". Many members were seniors

MR. TOM GOHEEN directs chorus.

LEAVING FOOTPRINTS at Oceana High were Ann Lusk and Donnie Johnson, who received the American Legion awards for excellent citizenship.

Class of '67

CLASS OF '67 leaves Oceana High to find new worlds to conquer. The class leaves its own record of achievement.

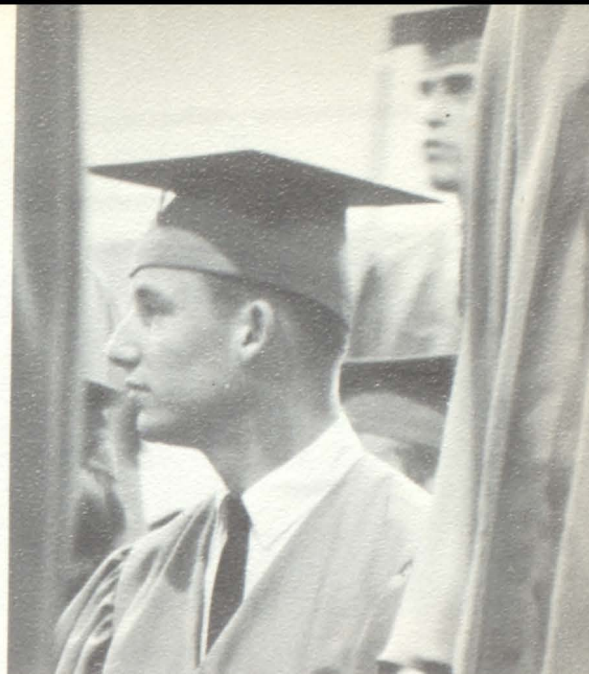

SOLEMN SENIORS Cheryl Mayhew and Bill Harvey begin the march down the aisle.

HAPPY ANTICIPATION is shown in the faces of Gail Browning and Teddy Wykle.

FOOTPRINTS AND TIME

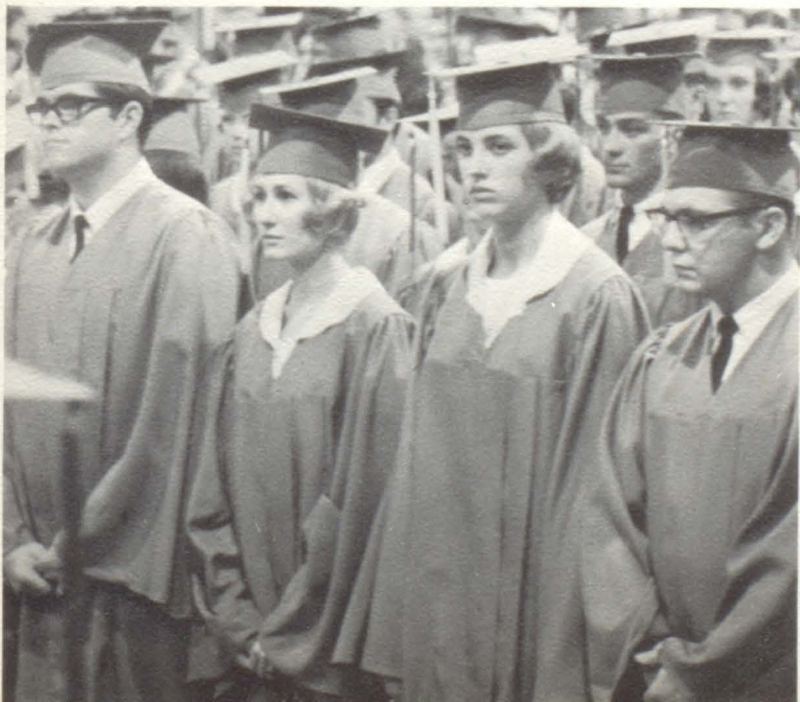

CALM GRADUATE Howard Pack holds his diploma. Expectant Troy Belcher is ready to march.

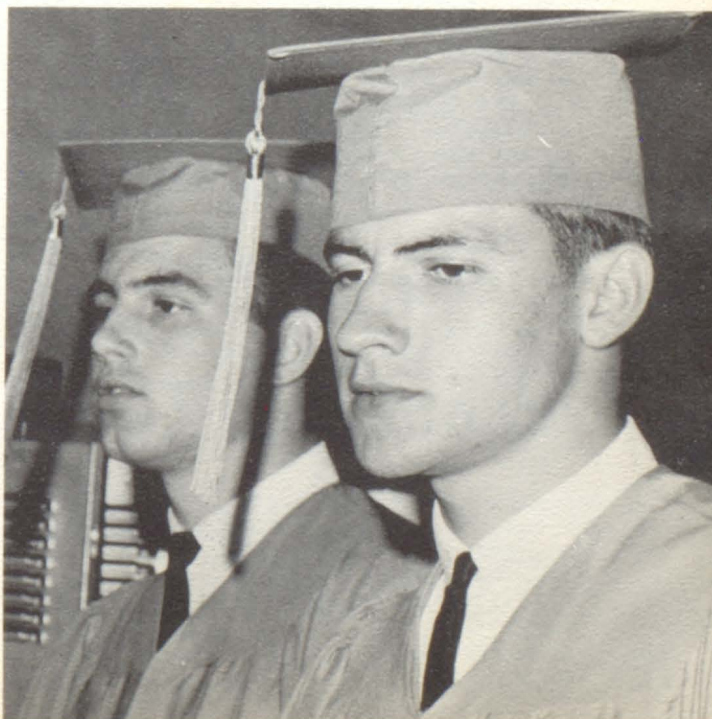

IT'S A TIME to sing for Falous Asbury, Darrell Kennedy, and Robert Martin.

Leaves Oceana High

SERIOUS SENIORS await presentation of their diplomas.

FOR SENIORS David Miller and Larry Miller it's time to think. Four years have ended and the unknown future lies ahead. What next?

Scotty Aliff, Judy Mullins, Melissa Snider, and Steve Browning. Most of the group worked daily during sixth period.

Message From the Staff

In the silence of this now empty school, the Oceanian staff completes its work.

Last week, we lived through the excitement of graduation, the final examinations, the emptying of lockers--We saw the seniors scatter to begin jobs--to plan and prepare for college. We saw the underclassmen leave school for vacation pursuits.

Although the halls are quiet now, we hear the echo of pep rallies, the closing of lockers, the goodbye laughter and chatter.

Now for us, too, vacation begins. We have checked the last copy, written the last headline, and the Oceanian is ready for summer publication.

We hope that the Oceanian will keep fresh for you the memory of this special year--when we were part of Oceana High.

No cave for me!
